

Results for The Bettered Men Foundation Quarter 2 Survey

 Notes before reviewing results: 100% of DFW males who took the survey identified as a man. 100% of DFW men do not believe there is enough support for male victims of domestic violence. 100% of DFW men are not aware of any support groups or any lists of support groups for men in the DFW area. 100% of DFW men cannot provide 2 or more, male focused organizations for male victims. 68% of DFW men are not comfortable going to The Battered Women’s Foundation for support.

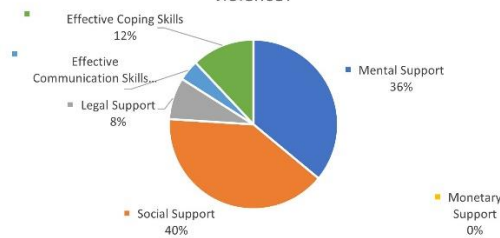

What kind of domestic violence do you think men most likely experience?

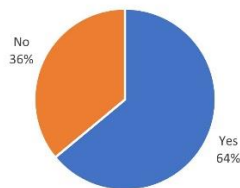

What percentage of men do you think are victims of domestic violence?

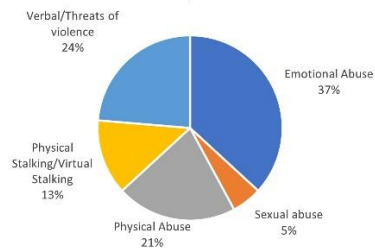

What kind of support and/or skills do you think would help male survivors of domestic violence?

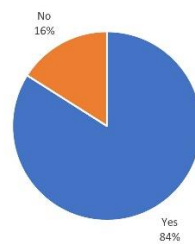

Have you ever felt or experienced domestic violence?

If yes to question 14, what kind of domestic violence were you a victim of?

Would you be interested in attending a support group for men regarding any issue?

What cover charge, session fee, or other associated fees would you be comfortable paying for a support group?

